

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON.

Putnam Rector at St. Alban's—Thirteenth Co's Annual Banquet—Funeral of Joseph Girard—Progressives Astir—Polish Citizens to Organize Fraternity.

The pupils in Miss Mary Smith's grade of the School street school were out for a sleighing party Thursday afternoon.

Frank B. Hart of Manchester, N. H., was a visitor with friends in Putnam Thursday.

Ira Thomas, the Philadelphia American League catcher, is to be with the team for another season, his local friends are interested to learn.

Members of the board of relief of the town are to be in session today (Friday) to close up the business of the year.

A large number of the students of Killingly High school were in Putnam for the basketball game Thursday evening.

Only Zero.

It was not so cold in Danielson Thursday morning, as the temperature was only zero.

Crowd at Lenten Service.

The congregation at St. James' church at the evening service on Ash Wednesday was the largest ever flowing, many being obliged to stand. Eli Lagenlas has returned from a business trip to Lynn.

Putnam Rector Preaches.

Rev. C. J. Harriman of St. Philip's church, Putnam, preached the first of the Lenten sermons at St. Alban's church, Thursday evening.

There is a rumor that the Bar Harbor express are again to be run through Danielson this summer, as was formerly the case.

Thursday's warmer weather helped out the trolley men, thawing the ice away from the tracks.

Edward McDermott, who is confined to his home by a sprained ankle, is slowly recovering from the injury.

East Killingly Divorce Suit.

A suit for divorce between Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moran of East Killingly has been filed in the superior court for Windham county.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren are living for a few weeks at the Burrows cottage at Oakland beach.

C. W. Clawson has returned from a trip of ten days through western and southern states.

George G. Johnson of Fall River was a visitor with friends in Danielson Thursday.

The petition of local dairymen to the Rhode Island company to run a milk car to Danielson is not completed, but will be within a few days and then some developments may be expected in the matter.

A Foot of Frost in Ground.

Telephone men who are setting poles in the surrounding territory report that there is not much more than a foot of frost in the ground.

The snow has acted as a blanket, preventing the frost from going to a greater depth.

Burial in New Britain.

The body of Mrs. E. B. Phillips was taken on a morning train Thursday for burial in Fairview cemetery at New Britain. The funeral party left from Putnam on the 9:26 express. A. P. Wood was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

In connection with the proposal of the Killingly High School Alumni association to create a fund for the construction of a gymnasium it is understood that persons who are not members of the association, but in sympathy with the project, are to be invited to become interested.

Deer Independent.

While the game warden and his deputies and many philanthropic persons are engaged in feeding wild birds during this time of difficulty for the creatures the deer are taking care of themselves, according to all accounts, and are coming after the food that is not brought to them, as some farmers who have sustained losses are testifying. The deer are barnyard visitors in some places these days.

ARTILLERYMEN BANQUET.

Thirteenth Company Holds Annual Feast and Entertains Friends.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren was the guest of honor. The banquet was a success and the company was entertained by a number of local musicians.

The annual banquet of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., was held in the state armory Thursday evening, with a number of borough officials and guests present. Lieutenant Warren and Sergeant Logee had charge of the arrangements of the banquet. Captain E. L. Darbie presided as toastmaster. Members of the company, borough officials and guests responded to toasts. Before the banquet there was the usual weekly drill, which proved of interest to all the spectators.

FUNERAL.

Joseph Girard.

Funeral services for Joseph Girard, better known as Joseph Bennett, were held at the Sacred Heart church in Wauregan Thursday morning. Rev. Philip J. Massicot of Taftville being celebrant of the requiem mass. Burial was in the Sacred Heart cemetery. The bearers were Louis Messier, Paul Chagnon, Frank Plunket, Henry Bondeau, Isaac Beland and Joseph Bonnard. Mr. Girard was 75 years of age and had been a resident in Wauregan for many years. His death occurred Monday. Louis E. Kennedy had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Progressives Beginning to Stir.

It is reported that members of the progressive party in the town of Killingly will have a more complete organization before the fall elections and that those interested in the progressive movement have been invited to enroll their names on a progressive caucus list when the time for so doing arrives. To what extent the party will go in this town in naming candidates for elective offices has not been determined at this time, it is understood.

Wauregan Rector in the South.

Rev. J. C. Mathien, pastor of the Sacred Heart church at Wauregan, is traveling in the south. His trip has already taken him to Florida and he will visit the Panama canal before returning to his pastoral duties some time during the coming month. While he is absent Rev. P. J. Massicot of Taftville is in charge of the parish.

Polish Organization Planned.

A branch of a fraternal organization that is very popular with Polish people in the eastern states is to be organized with headquarters in Putnam and will be made up of a membership representative of the various mill towns in this part of the state, including Danielson. The first of the meetings to consider the proposition are being held.

PUTNAM

Miss Webster To Relate Washington Experiences—Dyer S. Elliott Nominated For Judge of Probate By Thompson Republicans—Quinebaug Pomona Meeting Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds are to spend several weeks on a southern trip.

Charles Blake of Brooklyn, Mass., was a visitor in Putnam Thursday. Harvey was brought here from Thompson Thursday for burial in Grove street cemetery.

To Describe Washington Trip.

Miss R. Pysche Webster is to give a report of her trip to Washington at a meeting of the Equal Franchise League on the evening of March 12.

City in the White List.

There has been no session of the Putnam city court this week.

Mrs. F. C. Marner of Newport was a visitor with friends in Putnam Thursday.

Putnam streets took on the appearance of a Saturday afternoon on Thursday, when the temperature produced the first warm day in three weeks.

Special Lenten services are to be held at St. Mary's church this (Friday) evening.

John Simmons of Lowell was a visitor with friends in Putnam Thursday.

An Interesting Lecture.

Members of the Business Men's association were very much interested in the lecture on trade schools given by F. J. Trinder in the assembly hall of the high school Thursday evening.

Sleighting parties of school children from Danielson and from the town of Thompson came to Putnam Thursday.

The losses suffered as the result of the fire in the Bradley building on Front street are expected to be adjusted within the coming week.

The annual meeting of the city of Putnam for the transaction of business other than the election of officers is scheduled for next Monday.

Additional fire extinguishers, which make very valuable equipment, is being considered for the Putnam fire department.

Good Boarding Houses Needed.

A mill operative is publicly advocating that houses for mill workers be provided in Putnam—clean places where board can be had for about $5 a week.

Invited To South Woodstock.

The degree team of Putnam grange has been invited to go to South Woodstock to confer the grange initiatory on a class of ten candidates of Senexet grange. The date for the event has not been announced.

Rev. C. J. Harriman of St. Philip's church was the Lenten preacher at the services in St. Alban's church in Danielson on Thursday evening.

D. B. Gilbert and Warren S. Ames, clerks in local stores, were at New Haven attending a meeting of men interested in the hardware business.

Free Matinee.

To repay those who left the Bradley theater Tuesday afternoon to see the fire in the Bradley building broke out a free matinee with The Marriage of Kitty as the bill was given Thursday afternoon by the William Grey players—and the house was packed to the doors. The play was repeated in the evening.

DYER S. ELLIOTT CHOSEN.

Republican Nominee At Thompson Caucus For Judge Of Probate.

At a caucus held in Thompson Thursday afternoon for the purpose of nominating a candidate to succeed Judge Crosby, who retires on account of having attained the age limit, Dyer S. Elliott received a majority of the 107 votes cast by the Republicans participating in the meeting. Mr. Elliott received 63 votes and Marcus A. Covell 44. Mr. Elliott was declared the republican nominee. The democrats of the town have not as yet named a candidate for the office. The special election is scheduled for next month.

QUINEBAUG POMONA.

To Hold First 1914 Meeting in Putnam Saturday.

The first regular meeting of Quinebaug Pomona grange, No. 2, this year is to be held in Odd Fellows' hall on Pomfret street in this city tomorrow (Saturday) and all the subordinate granges in Windham county are expected to be represented. The morning session is to be called to order at 10 o'clock and is to be devoted to business. The communication of the annual word will be given.

Dinner is to be served at noon by the ladies' degree team.

The afternoon session opening at 1:30 o'clock is to be open to all fourth degree members. An address on The Farmer's Life The Ideal Ideal Life is to be given by Rev. A. Wheelock, of Marlboro, Mass., chaplain of the Massachusetts State grange.

At this session there is to be an open discussion of the Workmen's compensation act as to whether or not it is a benefit to the farmer. This discussion is to be opened by Herbert R. Slye and Charles H. Potter.

The literary and musical program for the afternoon session includes a reading by Louis F. Battey, singing by the mixed quartet of Storrs college, a violin solo by Mary Ross, piano solo by Miss Lena Rawley and a vocal solo by Miss Jennie Johnson.

County Sunday School Association Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Windham County Sunday School association is to be held at the Congregational church in Abington, Tuesday, March 3. The program has been arranged as follows: Devotional exercises, Rev. William J. Smith, North Grosvenordale; business, Financial Forecaster, Chester E. Child, Putnam; basket lunch, coffee provided by the Abington Sunday school; The Ungraded Class in the Sunday school, Mrs. J. K. Moore, Thompson; A Successful Men's Class, Dr. H. W. Thompson, Putnam; Open conference on Standards of Sunday School Efficiency, Secretary W. I. Woodin; The Sunday School Teacher as an Evangelist, H. L. Beadle, Hartford. The session of the convention in the morning is to open at 11:15.

February Thaw Begins.

The warm sun of Thursday put what looked like a real crack in the backbone of winter. The streets that got the full benefit of the improved temperature conditions ran with water and the sleighing in the city began to go. Business improved in the stores, for there were many people out and loomed that Jack Frost has been finally put to rout.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears
Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN
Dental Surgeon

In charge of Dr. S. L. Geer's practice during his last illness.

McGregory Building, Norwich, Conn.

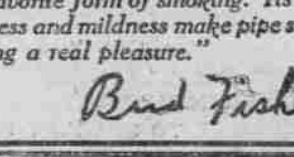

T. A. DORGAN ("TAD")
"Tuxedo can't be equalled in soothing, refreshing qualities. Its mildness insures a pleasant smoke, its coolness removes all chance of tongue bite."

R. L. GOLDBERG
creator of "Foolish Questions"
"I'm the Guy"
"I find in Tuxedo a good tobacco. Its fragrance and flavor are fine. I use it regularly and endorse it highly to all my friends."

BUD FISHER
creator of "Mutt and Jeff."
"Tuxedo has made a pipe my favorite form of smoking. Its coolness and mildness make pipe smoking a real pleasure."

The Men Who Put The Fun Into Your Daily Life

WITS well sharpened and minds in good humor. The man who has these generally knows what he is talking about. Read the testimonials on this page. Here are some of the greatest cartoonists in the country. They all smoke and endorse

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

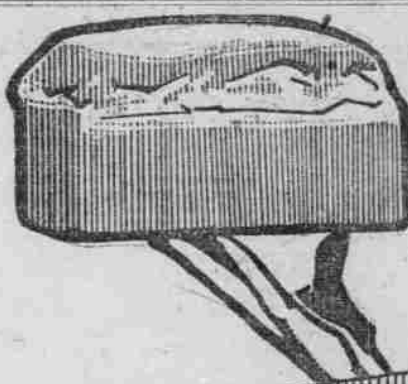

They wouldn't smoke Tuxedo if it didn't keep their minds alert and cheerful all day long, day in and day out. A tobacco that can do that stands in a class by itself.

Tuxedo is made of the very highest grade of choice, mellow, sweet Kentucky Burley leaf—treated by the original "Tuxedo Process," which removes the sting so that it cannot bite your tongue—granulated so that it smokes freely and uniformly—packed 40 pipefuls to the 10c tin.

Tuxedo deserves every good thing that has ever been said of it—and to prove it Tuxedo sells by the millions upon millions of tins annually.

YOU CAN BUY TUXEDO EVERYWHERE

Famous green tin with gold lettering, curved to fit the pocket
Convenient pouch, inner-lined with moisture-proof paper . . . 10c
In Glass Humidors, 50c and 90c
THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

FLOUR

Housewives: Show this Ad to your husbands.
Girls: Show it to the husband-to-be.

They like good things to eat—and they will like your baking better if you use SERV-US FLOUR—"the flour that makes the bread that makes you hungry." It pays to tempt the men folk with nice light creamy Bread, Biscuits and Pastry made from SERV-US, the "pedigreed flour." SERV-US-made bread keeps fresh and sweet longer because it is so rich in gluten. It is made from the firm, plump grains of Minnesota and Dakota hard spring Wheat. Every kernel is carefully washed with pure artesian water, scoured, ground with an almost endless row of steel rollers and then sifted thru pure silk, all done in a sanitary mill. It is untouched by human hand until you mix the dough.

SAVE ON YOUR BREAD BILL

SERV-US flour will make a more delicious loaf of bread for 2½c than you can buy anywhere for 5c. It is guaranteed to give you entire satisfaction or you can take it back and have your money refunded. Every sack is the same.

Remember that all of the

SERV-US BRAND FOODS

REDUCE THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

without reducing the HIGH QUALITY of what you eat.

Serv-Us Brands save you 35% and more of your grocery bill and give you a chance to spend more on dress and house furnishings. Serv-Us Brands cover practically everything in pure foods from flour and salt to pickles and coffee.

VALUABLE FREE GIFT COUPONS

like the one shown here can be cut from every package of Serv-Us Brand Foods. They are good for all sorts of beautiful premiums.

Start Collecting right away. If coupon is not on the label it is inside the package. Insist on Serv-Us Brands. If your grocer hasn't them he can get them for you from

THE L. A. GALLUP CO., WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTORS NORWICH, CONN.

WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTORS NORWICH, CONN.

OUCH! LAME BACK, RUB IT!

Get a small trial bottle of old-time, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil."

Ah! Backache is gone! Quickly?—Yes! Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Oil." Apply this soothing, penetrating oil directly upon the ache, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints.

cannot injure and doesn't burn, the skin. Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those tortuous "stitches." In a moment you will feel even that you ever had a back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.